

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September 30, 2011

The National Boarasaurus Hunting Challenge Kicks Off In Association with the 2nd Annual Great South Predator and Wild Hog Challenge

MACON, GEORGIA (September 1, 2011) – Scurry Outdoors South announced the start of the National Boarasaurus Hunting Challenge, beginning September 1, 2011 and ending January 29, 2012. During the five-month challenge, Dog Bay/Catch hunters across the United States will vie to bag the largest wild boar, with the winner claiming a minimum of $1,000 plus many other prizes.

The champion will be announced on the final day of the 2nd Annual Great South Predator and Wild Hog Challenge (presented by Scurry Outdoors South in conjunction with Bass Pro Shops). The Wild Hog Challenge, a three-day hunting event with prizes for the hunters who bag the largest predator or boar caught during that time, will be held at the Bass Pro Shop Sportsman's Warehouse in Macon, Georgia from January 27-29, 2012.

Competitors can hunt anywhere in the United States as long as their wild hog is weighed on certified scales at a State Department of Agriculture certified scales or facility. Photographs, cutter measurements and multiple split hair samples from down the spine will also be required.

ABOUT SCURRY OUTDOORS SOUTH

Scurry Outdoors South was founded by brothers Ken and Jeff Scurry with the purpose of developing trade shows and special hunting events specifically for outdoor enthusiasts. Their lifetime love of hunting and the outdoors, combined with 40 years of convention and trade show industry experience, has resulted in forming several events and expos for both predator and wild hog hunting. Scurry Outdoors South is producing The Modern Sporting Arms Expo and the World Predator and Wild Hog Extravaganza, scheduled for September 7-9, 2012 in Waco, Texas.
